Foreword from the Minister

I welcome the publication of the 2002 Annual Statistical Report, the twentieth edition of this Report, which provides comprehensive statistical information on all Social Welfare Services operated by this Department, in addition to trends over the past ten years.

This Department operates a broad range of schemes and services to benefit families as well as the wider community and is central to the provision of social protection in this country. The Report will be of significant value in the development of policies responsive to the needs of people in a wide variety of circumstances.

From birth, through life to death, our system of social supports administered by my Department helps approximately one in three citizens at any one time. With a Budget spend last year of €9.52 billion the increase of 21.4% in social welfare spending has remained above the rate of inflation and increased by over €3.5 billion between 1997 and 2002.

Important developments in 2002 highlighted in the Report include:

- Total Social Welfare expenditure in 2002 was €9.52 billion, which represented 28.8% of Gross Current Government expenditure.
- Over 938,000 people were in receipt of a weekly social welfare payment at the end of 2002.
- Expenditure on Old Age Payments increased by 15.5% on 2001.
- Expenditure on Child Related Payments rose by 49.2% in 2002.
- Carer's Allowance expenditure increased by €30 million in 2002, an increase of 22.8% over 2001.
- The number of recipients of Family Income Supplement increased by 4.1% with an increase in expenditure of 14.4%.
- In 2002, a Back to School Clothing and Footwear Allowance was paid in respect of 155,811 children, an increase of 12,782 on 2001 with expenditure on the scheme increased by 18.8% to just over €15 million.

Our social service policies allied to our policies on education, housing, health and governance to name a few, make real differences to the lives of our citizens and I am committed to the ongoing maintenance and development of those social services. Timely and accurate information is a key input to this process and this Report makes an important contribution in this regard.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the wide range of staff in the Department who contributed to the compilation of the Report.

Mary Coughlan TD
Minister for Social and Family Affairs

(1) A Qualified Child increase is payable at half rate where a spouse living with the recipient, is not a Qualified Adult. Each spouse may receive half the Qualified Child increase where both spouses are in receipt of a Social Welfare payment. This can result in some double counting of the actual number of Qualified Children.

(2) The number of Children is an estimated figure.

(3) Includes basic weekly payments only.

(4) The total figures include a small element of double counting as some persons could be in receipt of more than one payment, the second of which might be, for example, Disablement Benefit, Rent Allowance or Family Income Supplement.

Section C: Widows, Widowers and One-Parent Families

Expenditure and Recipients

Expenditure on Widows, Widowers and One-Parent Families increased by 12.7% overall.

The payment in this programme group with both the largest expenditure and number of recipients is Widow's and Widower's (Contributory) Pension. At the end of 2002, there were 102,494 recipients (91,826 widows and 10,668 widowers). Expenditure in 2002 was over £761 million which represented an increase of 13.2% over 2001.

The number of recipients of Deserted Wife's Benefit and Deserted Wife's Allowance declined during 2002. This arises as a result of the discontinuation of these payments for new claimants with effect from January 1997. One-Parent Family Payment replaced these payments, Prisoners Wife's Allowance and Lone Parent's Allowance from that date.

Section D

child related payments

Section D: Child Related Payments

Expenditure and Recipients

This section relates to payments made in respect of children such as Child Benefit, Orphan's Pensions, and Maternity related payments. For ease of reference, this section also gives details of increases in respect of qualified children which are payable with social welfare payments (See Table D10). It should be noted, however, that for the purpose of apportioning expenditure between programmes, the cost of qualified child increases are included with the main payment e.g. Qualified Child increases paid with Old Age pensions are included in the 'Old Age' programme.

Expenditure on payments in this programme group rose by 49.2% in 2002. The breakdown of Child Benefit by family size shows that 74.2% of recipient families in 2002 have either one or two children. The equivalent percentage for 1994 was 67.2%. See Table D8 and Graph D1. The number of families receiving Child Benefit rose by 7,522 to 522,441. The total number of children in respect of whom Child Benefit is paid increased by 1,376 to 1,019,551.

Expenditure on Child Benefit increased by £498 million in 2002, an increase of 51.6% while Maternity Benefit expenditure increased by over £20 million, an increase of 25.6%.

Section F: Unemployment Supports

The statistics in this section of the report relate to the Live Register, expenditure and recipients of unemployment payments:

Live Register and Unemployment Payments

The Live Register is a monthly statistical count compiled by the Central Statistics Office of certain categories of persons registered with the Department of Social and Family Affairs for Unemployment Benefit, Unemployment Assistance and credited Social Insurance contributions.

The Live Register comprises of the following classes of persons under the age of 65 years:

- (i) all claimants of Unemployment Benefit excluding systematic short-time workers,
- (ii) applicants for Unemployment Assistance excluding smallholders and self-employed persons,
- (iii) other registrants including applicants for credited Social Welfare contributions but excluding those directly involved in an industrial dispute.

This means that not all persons who are in receipt of Unemployment Benefit or Assistance are on the Live Register. Some persons who are included on the Live Register e.g. applicants for credited contributions, are not in receipt of an unemployment benefit or assistance payment.

Time Series and Changes to Existing Payments

Farm Assist was introduced in April 1999 and replaced the Smallholders Unemployment Assistance scheme. The new scheme provides an income supplement for low-income farmers. The great majority of existing recipients of Smallholders Unemployment Assistance transferred to Farm Assist during the course of 1999 and 2000. There were 750 recipients of Smallholders Unemployment Assistance at the end of 1999 163 at the end of December 2000, 88 at the end of December 2001 and 33 at the end of December 2002.

Data on expenditure on Farm Assist and recipients of Farm Assist/Smallholders is contained in Section G (Employment Supports). Expenditure on Unemployment Assistance shown in this Section includes expenditure on Smallholders Unemployment Assistance in 1999 and earlier years. This affects the comparability of different years' figures in this Section and in Section G.

Trends

Overall expenditure on Unemployment Supports increased by 29.8% over 2001.

Expenditure on Unemployment Assistance rose by over €82 million over 2001, an increase of 8.4%. Expenditure on Unemployment Benefit rose by nearly €133 million, an increase of 45.7% over 2001.

The Live Register increased by 13,736 during 2002, an increase of 9.0%. Table F14 shows the numbers on the Live Register by County in 2001 and 2002 and the percentage increase/decrease in each county.

Appendices

Appendix 1: Social Insurance and Social Assistance

The Department of Social & Family Affairs provides a range of payments which can be classified as follows.

Social Insurance

Payments made under the social insurance system are funded, in part, by contributions from employers, employees and the self-employed. Any deficit in the fund is met by Exchequer subvention. Entitlement to social insurance benefits is conditional upon the claimants having a certain number of contributions paid or credited in a specific period of time. The contributions conditions vary according to the different insurance schemes.

Social insurance schemes comprise Old Age (Contributory) Pension, Retirement Pension, Widow's/Widower's (Contributory) Pension, Orphan's (Contributory) Allowance, Deserted Wife's Benefit, Invalidity Pension, Disability Benefit, Carer's Benefit, Unemployment Benefit, Maternity Benefit, Health and Safety Benefit, Adoptive Benefit, Treatment Benefit, Widowed Parent Grant, Bereavement Grants and Free Schemes.

Social Assistance

Social Assistance schemes are financed entirely by the Exchequer. One of the basic requirements to qualify for payment under the social assistance schemes is that the claimant must satisfy a means test.

Social Assistance schemes comprise Old Age (Non-Contributory) Pension, Widow's (Non-Contributory) Pension, Orphan's (Non-Contributory) Pension, Deserted Wife's Allowance, Prisoner's Wife's Allowance, One-Parent Family Payment, Unemployment Assistance, Farm Assist, Pre-Retirement Allowance, Supplementary Welfare Allowance, Family Income Supplement, Disability Allowance, Carer's Allowance, Blind Pension, Rent Allowance and Free Schemes.

Child Benefit

Child Benefit is funded entirely by the Exchequer; it is payable in respect of all children regardless of family means.

Appendix 4: Voluntary and Community Organisations

The Department of Social and Family Affairs grant schemes concentrate on a wide range of support for local self-help groups, community development, welfare rights and information work, and on the provision of seed money to enable community groups to pilot initiatives identified as meeting new and emerging community needs. To be eligible for funding, groups must subscribe to a self-help, community ethos and must involve the intended beneficiaries in the management and the design of the project. These grant schemes are aimed at developing people and their capacity to participate in society, rather than the provision of services or direct economic development or job creation initiatives.

Island Development Programme

A programme of core funding to five off-shore islands, Inishboffin, Inishturk, Sherkin, Clare Island and Bere Island, which is geared towards the specific needs of island communities and is funded under the Community Development Programme.

Community Development Programme

The programme provides financial assistance to projects towards the staffing and equipping of local resource centres which provide a focal point for community development activities and to other specialised community development projects and initiatives having a strategic importance. The projects provide a range of supports, development opportunities and services to community groups and individuals within their areas.

Responsibility for the administration of the above schemes transferred to the Department of Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs with effect from 25 June 2002.

Family Resource Centres

The aim of a Family and Community Services Resource Centre is to help combat disadvantage by improving the functioning of the family unit. Centres can provide special services for lone parent families, young mothers and others considered in need of extra support and can act as a first step to community participation and social inclusion for the most vulnerable and marginalised families. Centres are also concerned with initiatives to enhance their parenting skills and initiatives to promote the greater involvement of young men in the life of the community.

Legislation to establish the Family Support Agency was passed in late 2001 and the agency was established on 6 May 2003. Responsibility for the administration of the Family and Community Services Resource Centre Programme has transferred to the new Agency.

Money Advice and Budgeting Service

At the end of 2002, the Money Advice and Budgeting Service (MABS) had 62 centres around the country which address the problems of moneylending and overindebtedness.

Appendix 5

Family Affairs Unit

The Family Affairs Unit was established in the Department of Social and Family Affairs in 1998. The responsibilities of the Unit are:

- to co-ordinate family policy;
- to pursue the findings in the Report of the Commission on the Family following their consideration by the Government;
- to undertake research and promote awareness about family;
- support for the marriage and child and bereavement counselling services;
- the Family Mediation Service;
- an information programme on parenting issues.

Family Support Agency

Legislation to establish the Family Support Agency was enacted in December 2001. The Family Support Agency, which was established on 6 May 2003, has responsibility for a number of functions currently under the remit of the Family Affairs Unit. The new Agency will:

- provide a family mediation service
- support, promote and develop the provision of marriage and relationship counselling and other family supports and
- support, promote and develop the Family and Community Services Resource Centres programme.

The new Agency will undertake research, provide and disseminate information about parenting and family issues and provide advice to the Minister for Social and Family Affairs on matters relating to its functions.

The Family Support Agency will bring together the main programmes and pro-family services developed since 1997. It will provide a comprehensive and coherent response for families in need of these support services and for families generally. It will be a dedicated Agency and a resource for all those involved in the promotion of family well being.
