Important:

Your Free Travel card is a very valuable document and is for your own personal use only and is not transferable to any other person. Under no circumstances is another individual entitled to use your free travel card at any time. The card remains the property of the Department of Social Protection.

The Department aims to provide a high quality service in a safe and secure environment and this extends to our service providers. It is our duty to ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of all our customers, employees and members of the public.

Conditions of use for the Free Travel Card are subject to the bye-laws, regulations and conditions of, or applicable to, the transport companies.

However, if it is reported that a person is consistently abusing their Free Travel entitlement by either wrongfully presenting a card for travel or engaging in anti social behaviour while using the card, the Department will review that person's Free Travel entitlement.

Data Protection Statement

Personal data is required to determine eligibility for payments and services, administered for Ireland's social protection system. It may be shared with other Government Departments/Agencies where provided for by law. Data protection policy available at www.welfare.ie/dataprotection or hard copy.

Explanations and terms used in this form are intended as a guide only and are not a legal interpretation.
